There was four or five hundred slaves on our place. One morning during slavery, my father killed 18 white men and ran away. They said he was lazy and whipped him, and he just killed all of 'em he could, which was 18 of 'em. He stayed away 3 years without being found. He come back and killed 7 before they could kill him. When he was on the place he jest made blind.

What if Lewis' father came back as a ghost? Who would he haunt? When and where would he do it? How would they know it was Lewis' father? Is there a way to make the ghost go away?